Character Award of the Month

By Dr. Wanda Merritt
Director of School Improvement/Character Education

Keantrah Pritchard, daughter of Shirley Pritchard, is in the 4th grade at Grenada Upper Elementary School and was chosen for the Character Award for September. According to Keantrah's teacher, Mrs. Westmoreland, she is a very polite well-mannered young lady at all times. Mrs. Westmoreland stated, "She treats myself and her classmates with a significant amount of respect by always saying things such as please, thank-you, good job, etc". Mrs. Westmoreland also stated, "Keantrah also encourages others in our class daily and sets such a positive example of respectfulness".

Mr. Loren Harris, Principal, and Mrs. Carol Tharpe, Assistant Principal, are very proud of their students and their awareness of the importance of great character.
