NNDCC Works Roadside Cleanup

The Grenada High School Navy National Defense Cadet Corps worked on Roadside Cleanup for the Adopt -A-Highway program. The cadets have over 2000 hours in community service since April 1st of this year. Cadets have volunteered for Grenada Food Pantry, Balloon Fest, Thunder on Water, Doodle Bug Fest in Holcomb, and Christmas in April, Relay for Life. Each NNDCC cadet is required to have 30 hours of community service a semester, with a total of 60 hours for the school year. The cadets continue to look for more volunteer community service work this year in and around Grenada.
